First Annual Fall Fusion Event!

Wow.. what an amazing event hosted by Coto residents John Parlet and Lori Stowe, owners of John's Incredible Pizza. They went all out to ensure this was one of the most memorable events of the year. The evening started with a “mini” taste of Coto, which included five of the best local restaurants including Hanna’s, Carmelitas, Tutto Fresco, Bru and BJ’s. They were all showcasing some of their most popular menu items. No tasting event would be complete without wine and beer as well. Rancho Capistrano Winery and Laguna Beach Beer Company provided some local flavor.

The evening entertainment started with local performer Zach Churchill and then to top the night off the Kings of Chaos with special guest Billy Idol took to the stage. If you haven’t heard of the Kings of Chaos they are a mixture of some of the best musicians in the industry. The band is comprised of Robert and Dean DeLeo from Stone Temple Pilots, Matt Sorum, the drummer from Guns N Roses, Steve Stevens from Billy Idols band and Franky Perez the lead singer of Apocalyptica.

With approximately 400 people attending, Fall Fusion raised just over $300,000 for the Providence Speech and Hearing Center. John and Lori have a very close tie to this special center. When John and Lori recognized that their son Connor’s speech was delayed and he seemed to have an incredible aptitude for music, they realized something wasn't quite right with his development, so they had The Providence Speech and Hearing Center evaluate him. They found out that Connor was deemed as a moderate risk for autism. As a result, John and Linda had Connor start working with Pediatric Occupational Therapist Lisa Cummings at the center and eventually he overcame this challenge. Connor is now a little chatterbox.

Fall Fusion would really like to thank all the incredible sponsors that made the event such a success.
